L & Co., SOUTH UNION AVE AND D ST.

and photown price this

y cheap at the n the city are corner D and

RE.

ant new line
mes Hopkins,

LY.

work of any
s will do well
h the Pueblo
d Greenwood
ers for Xmas

DIED.

McKEE—Saturday, December 15, 1894, of Bright's disease, John C. McKee, of Telluride, aged 46 years.

Funeral from McMahon & Collier's at 2 p. m. today.

McCLELLAND—Saturday, December 15, 1894, William McClelland, aged 24 years.

The remains were shipped by McMahon & Collier to Washington, Iowa, last night.

MARCINKO—Friday, December 14, 1894, Mrs. Andrew Marcinko, aged 30 years.

Funeral from the family home at First and Bradford streets at 10 a. m. yesterday.

CARLIS—Saturday, December 15, 1894, Emma S., one year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carlis.

Funeral from the house, 1243 Box Elder street, yesterday at 4 p. m.

THE HAGEY INSTITUTE.

An institution for the cure of alcohol-