ing. Inter-
w.

Fearheiley
20th at
a. Former
and Rock-
to Florida
atholic
each. Sur-
husband,
ey, of the
sons and
nt F. Fear-
n K. Fear-
. Mary M.
Mo.; Mark
ver; Ray-
y, Pueblo.
mother,
s; two sis-
Lowe and
cClinstock,
Ill. Thir-
five nieces
survive. A
rheiley Jr.
th in 1949.
er. Family
t 2118 Hol-
papers

and well-

e and no

m Cowper

at Mt. Carmel Church at 8:30 a.m.

Burbrink—

Mrs. Teresa McNally Burbrink. Requiem Mass today, 9 a.m., Sacred Heart Cathedral. Interment Roselawn.

Veges—

Gus J. Veges of 1515 Spruce, July 20. Husband of Mrs. Margaret Veges. Father of Anton Veges, Mrs. Anna Smith, John Veges and William Veges all of Pueblo. Brother of Ernest Uveges, Cleveland, Ohio. Survived also by 13 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Member of St. Francis Xavier Parish, Knights of Columbus, Pueblo Council 557; Holy Name Society and charter member of Fin and Feather Club. Services St. Francis Xavier Church. Recitation of the Rosary will be Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., and the Requiem High Mass Thursday, 9 a.m. Interment Gate of Heaven, Roselawn.

The world is only a place of pilgrimage, but, after all, there is a good deal of cheer on the journey, if it is made with a contented heart.

—Henry Van Dyke

Mrs. Anona

Dr C N Caldwe
ornor, said Monda
is planned in the Anona Price, 48,
when fire swept th
her apartment at
Sunday morning

Dr F W Bar
county coronor. Su
cause of death as h

Services will be
Wednesday at th
Carthy Funeral
will be in Mountai
tery

49-Cent H
Sell Out F

NEW HAVEN, C
took less than thre
000 Kennedy half
Second National
Haven to be sold
each Monday

The bank offer
that bear the liken
President John F
the one-cent-off ba
an attempt to lure
into circulation