DIED

FITZPATRICK—Mary Cecelia, died yesterday morning at the family home 1301 Lake avenue, after a protracted illness. Miss Fitzpatrick was born in Chicago thirty-five years ago, and came to Pueblo with her parents when a little girl. She attended St. Patrick's school, and eventually graduated from Loretto Academy. For many years she has been an earnest and faithful worker in St. Patrick's parish and devoted her life to the furtherance of all that was good. While her passing away was anticipated, her death came as a shock to her relatives and friends. Only six weeks ago, her father, the late Jeff Fitzpatrick, a well known pioneer of this city passed to the great beyond. She is survived by her mother, one sister, Mrs. Dr. J. J. McDonnel, 1031 Lake avenue, and five brothers, James Jefferson, Jr., William, Bartley and Frank, all residents of Pueblo. The funeral will be held Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the late residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church. Rev. Father Schimpf will celebrate requim high mass for the dead. Interment will be in the family lot in Roselawn, under the direction of the United Undertaking company.
