olas case also failed.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna K. Forbes took place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Walter F. Davey, 1502 Carturet avenue, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Wester of the Lake avenue Baptist church conducted the services. Many beautiful floral tributes were banked about the casket and a large number of sorrowing friends attended the funeral services. Miss Pearl Hilburn White sang three solos, two at the residence and one at the cemetery as the casket was being lowered into the grave. The pallbearers were sons and sons-in-law of Mrs. Forbes. They were J. H. Forbes, C. H. Forbes, Edwin Cox, H. Shoemaker, C. H. Warden and W. F. Davey. The flower bearers were Edith Shoemaker, Edith, Earl and Cecil Davey, grandchildren. The interment was in the family lot at Roselawn.