

At the Princess

Deslys, the celebrated international star, and the sensation of two continents, makes her first and exhaustless appearance in motion pictures in her final story of the stage, "Her Triumph," produced in Paris by the Famous Players Film company. This, in four parts, is the current attraction on the Paramount program at the Princess theater.

In the news was disclosed, some time ago, that Adolph Zukor, president of the Famous Players Film company, had engaged the international star on the eve of her departure for France after her triumphant appearance on the New York stage to act in a motion picture production staged in Paris, the announcement was a seven days' wonder in theatrical and film circles and among the general public. To millions of people throughout the country who had read or months in the daily newspapers the beautiful and fascinating star's amazing stage achievements, contemplated motion picture production with the illustrious star representing the only opportunity of ever being directly acquainted with her beauty and individuality. This opportunity is now materialized to a degree beyond the expectations of the most ardent, for on the screen the wonder Gaby is even more bewitching than she has been in all her previous performances.

"Her Triumph" was written around the star, and is so constructed as to play to the utmost advantage Mlle. Deslys' versatile and astonishing talents.

This production introduces many novelties such as the Dance Deslys, a realistic and impressive reproduction of the interior of a theatre, with a company on the stage, numerous

The funeral of John M. Saxton, one of Pueblo's pioneers, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of his brother, Chas. E. Saxton, 123 Michigan. A quartet composed of Mrs. A. W. Blake, Mrs. R. J. Weaver, Mrs. E. A. Taylor and Mr. A. G. Hoskins accompanied by Mrs. A. G. Hoskins sang "My Jesus as Thou Wilt," and "Nearer My God to Thee." Rev. F. A. Hatch officiated. The flower-bearers were: A. Bullen and B. B. Brown. The pall-bearers were: G. G. Withers, E. B. Wicks, N. S. Walpole, W. L. Graham, J. M. Jackson and G. A. Marsh. Interment in the family lot in Roselawn in charge of the United Undertaking company.

The funeral of Gad Foster was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the United Undertaking company's chapel and at 2:30 o'clock from the St. Paul A. M. E. church. Rev. John Adams officiated. Star of the West No. 4, K. of P., attended in a body and escorted the body to the cemetery, where their ritualistic services were exemplified. Impressive music was rendered by St. Paul vested choir. The honorary pall-bearers were A. Derley, W. Greer, J. Watts, D. Macer, G. W. Stevens and T. Wallace. The pall-bearers were M. H. Boswell, Ben Rodden, J. Stringer, W. Anderson, S. A. Phillips and E. J. Kittrell. Interment in Roselawn in charge of the United Undertaking company.

RESERVED SEATS FOR ELKS' SHOW MONDAY MORNING AT 8 A. M., GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Damaged By Ice

St. Johns, N. F., Feb. 7.—The Allan Line steamer Mongolian was seriously damaged by ice. The ship was bound for Pekin, China, Feb. 1, to enforce its demands for payment according to conditions of the contract. The ship was bound for Pekin, China, Feb. 1, to enforce its demands for payment according to conditions of the contract.

Author

Adams
Anonymous

Connor

Dewson

Flandreau

Flandreau

Gale

Gray

Jacobs

Lippman

Martin

Pinehart

Rolland

Tuchock Bros., Tailors

JAPS THREATEN TO ENFORCE

China May Allow Take What They
Than Be Hit

Pekin, China, Feb. 7.—The Allan Line steamer Mongolian was seriously