

5.00.

HOUSES, BARN SHEDS BURN BESSEMER FIRE

BUILDINGS AND CON-
ESTIMATED TO BE
OUT $4,500

One barn, several sheds
the 800 block on Railroad destroyed by fire late last alarm was turned in at
but before the depart-
reach the scene the fire considerable headway. The estimated to be $4,500.

The houses were frame
and the fourth was of brick was damaged but buildings were a complete loss was the furniture and in them. The fire was under control as it was underway before the fire derived.

Buildings were said to have been destroyed but no one was injured.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Alexander A. Walker, age 35, died at the family home at 511 Bay State street, yesterday morning. Mr. Walker has lived in Pueblo ten years and has been employed by the Rio Grande system practically all of that time. He was a member of the B. of R. T. No. 32 of Pueblo. He is survived by his wife, mother and father all of this city. The body is being cared for at the home by the United Undertaking company and the funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the residence and at 2:30 o'clock at St. James' church. Rev. Father Lehman will officiate. Interment in the family lot in Roselawn.

The funeral of Gad Forester, who died in this city last Wednesday, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the United Undertaking company's chapel and at 2:30 at St. Paul A. M. E. church. Rev. John Adams will officiate. Interment in Roselawn under the auspices of the Star of the West, K. of P. No. 4.

The funeral of John M. Saxton who died in this city Friday night will be held from the home of his brother, Charles E. Saxton, at 123 Michigan avenue at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. F. A. Hatch will officiate. Interment in the family lot in Roselawn in charge of the United Undertaking company.

nounce the exclusive sales,
Woods Mobliettes in Pueblo

Default judgment was taken by the district court yesterday by the cantile National bank against S. McMillan in a suit in which S. H. Manning and H. were defendants. The bank's collection of a note for $1,728 from the three defendants, Feb. 1914.

The personal damage suit by Jose Cerda against the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, was dismissed by the district court yesterday. The stipulation stated that the suit was settled out of court but the plaintiff was not mentioned.

Jessie Keith yesterday won a divorce from John P. Keith. They were married in Whitney, Texas, November 18, 1894. The court ordered $100 a month alimony was paid.

Yeager Coal Co. Main 60

A change of venue was granted yesterday in the case filed by L. against the Rio Grande railroad for $25,000. The petition to transfer the case to Eagle county was presented. The plaintiff claimed that that is the place where the accident happened and the case should be tried there. The court granted the motion under which Allen was a brakeman. That due to the carelessness of the driver, he was knocked over and maimed him for

The 16-year-old daughter of Williams became a ward of the juvenile court yesterday after being found guilty of juvenile delinquency by the district attorney.