

on of four years. The ceremony was performed by the Rabbi of that city, last night. Both young people are exceptionally well known here. Mrs. Penter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Penter and his bride of yesterday first married here about seven years ago when their wedding was one of the most interesting matrimonial of the year. They lived together for several years. A divorce was granted and Mrs. Penter went to California about four years ago and has not been heard of there until recently. Their friends in a quiet way have been endeavoring to make them reconsider. Their efforts have finally proved successful and the re-marriage was herewith great joy by their legion of friends here. They will return to Pueblo to make their home. Penter and his wife have always been among the most popular young Jewish people in this city.

NO INFECTED CARS

Report of Quarantine Train Proved Erroneous on Investigation

Someone got excited yesterday and called by telephone that there was a lot of stock cars on the Santa Fe west of the insane asylum which were lacarded with big signs reading, "Infected cars have been exposed to cholera." The Santa Fe railroad officials were notified but up to a late hour last night according to James E. Penter, division superintendent, the signs were still there and could not be located.

People living in that vicinity and those who were notified of the cars

Charles Walker, aged 40 years, died yesterday at Walsenburg. The body will be brought to Pueblo today in charge of Davis & Vories. Funeral announcement will be made later.

Thomas Dougherty, aged 47 years, formerly of Walsenburg, died at a local hospital yesterday. The remains were removed to McCarthy's to await instructions from relatives.

The funeral of Jno. J. Ritchie will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the McCarthy chapel. Interment will be in Roselawn.

Gad Foster, aged 49, died in this city yesterday. Mr. Foster was an employee of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company for the past ten years. He was a member of the K. of P. No. 4 and Eureka lodge No. 5 of this city. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. W. B. Mathews, who resides at the family residence, 1501 east Routt avenue, and Mrs. Joseph Deloney of Moreland, Utah. The remains were removed to the United Undertaking company parlors. The funeral will be announced later.

The funeral of E. M. West was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the United Undertaking company's chapel. Rev. W. Lee officiated. The Mission choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Saved By Grace." The pall bearers were John Neilson, Tom Robertson, O. I. Kittinger, Ed Mills, Ben Durbin and Charley Draper. Interment in Mountainview.

CURLING IRON LAMP DID IT

Exploded or Tipped Over on Bed

of the Mighty" which was shown at the Casino New York. The World Film corporation originated the ten reels but has been condensed 40 per cent with the interest on sequence.

"The Seats of the Mighty" is a high grade feature film, complete with court scenes, duels, a plot of plotting and counter plotting, a story with its attendant vicissitudes and delays before the lovers are finally united; almost a passion is vividly illustrated in the picture. Nor are the best of nature omitted from the picture. It generously catered to the sympathies and antipathies of the drama from start to finish without padding or dragging.

The World Film company is presenting the picture to the public with the thought that "The Seats of the Mighty" is an ideal story in dramatic form produced with lavishness and power.

At the Pri

"The Man from Hong Kong" is the only picture shown at the Pri the most interesting picture ever offered to the Pueblo public. Both by reason of its story and because of numerous other features, the Prince of Pictures booked it and shows it for one day.

Tomorrow will be the last day of the two days feature offering. It will sell in "Wildfire."

Madame Stillwell

Madame Stillwell and her artists who will appear