BAKER'S BREAKFAST COCOA

"Known the world over. . . . Received the highest indorsements from the medical practitioner, the nurse, and the intelligent housekeeper and caterer." —Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette.

Walter Baker & Co. Ltd.
DORCHESTER, MASS.
Established 1780.

Trade-Mark on Every Package

ONE YEAR FOR HIM.

Minimum Sentence Dealt Out to Achilles Young Colored.

TWO QUITE INTERESTING SUITS.

Young Man Says His Father-In-Law Refuses to Sell Him Land at the Agreed Price, Even Though He Has Carried Out His Part of the Promise.—Probate and Divorce Cases Take up the Time of Judge Coulter.

DISTRICT COURT, DIVISION B.

Achilles Yancy, colored, who was implicated with Martin Wright in the robbery of the Chicago Liquor house last March was sentenced to the state

OBITUARY.

MRS. MAUD THOMPSON BLACK.

Mrs. Maud Thompson Black, wife of David Black, died yesterday forenoon at St. Anthony's hospital, Denver, as the result of an operation for appendicitis performed last Wednesday. The deceased was a graduate of the Centennial high school in this city and leaves a wide circle of friends and several relatives to mourn her loss. Mrs. Black lived here for a number of years and moved to Denver at the time that her husband went there with the Stearn Rogers Manufacturing company. The funeral will be held today from the family home 1620 Humboldt street, Denver.

SIMON FRANKLIN.

After reaching the good old age of 83 years and enjoying almost robust health up to a few hours before his death, Simon Franklin passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Barnett, 316 west Tenth street, at an early hour yesterday morning. He was born in Prussia and came to America in 1845 and had been a resident of Colorado for twenty years. Deceased leaves five children: A. B. Franklin, Jacob Franklin and Mrs. D. Barnett of Pueblo, I. J. Franklin of Chicago and Moses Franklin of Montrose county, Colorado. The funeral will be held today from the house at 2 p. m. The family requests that friends will omit flowers.

MRS. ANNIE R. RUSHMER.

After years of suffering, borne with the fortitude of a true Christian, Mrs. Anne Robbins Rushmer, beloved wife of Gorton Rushmer, passed into the great unknown yesterday at her home, 720 west Twelfth street. While she had been quite ill for several months it was not thought that death was near and arrangements had been made to take her east for special treatment, transportation having been secured several weeks ago. The end came after an operation which was thought could be done successfully.

In Mrs. Rushmer's death, Pueblo loses one of the highest type of Christian women. During her years of residence here she had made a large cir-

It's We won't b
this sea accomp left. C one pri
Com
some ti make a
A. E.

311
NORTH MAIN
T