LARCENY CHARGE

Ray Scott was arrested on suspicion yesterday afternoon. The charge at police headquarters against young Scott is larceny, and the disappearance of one rifle, two shotguns and three pistols from a gun store at Sixth street and Santa Fe avenue accounts for the action of the police. A good deal of mystery seems to surround the disappearanceme of the firearms, and Scott's connection with the affair arises from the fact that he worked for the proprietor of the place and at times had charge of the store.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of Captain I. R. French will take place from the residence, 715 Center street, at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the Upton post, G. A. R.

Almost everyone that goes to Colorado Springs or Denver travels on the popular Colorado & Southern. The public knows a good thing.

CHILDREN POISONED.

Many children are poisoned and made nervous and weak, if not killed outright, by mothers giving them cough syrups containing opiates. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and certain remedy for coughs, croup and lung troubles, and is the only prominent cough medicine that contains no opiates or other poisons.
