OBITUARY.

DR. E. S. GALE.

The grim reaper, death, yesterday morning at 8 o'clock removed from earth one of Pueblo's best known citizens and physicians, Dr. E. S. Gale. He died surrounded by relatives and friends at the family residence, No. 40 block W, from which place the funeral will occur at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Dr. E. S. Gale was a native of Kentucky, but grew to manhood in Indiana, near Madison. In 1844 he graduated from the Ohio Medical college at Cincinnati, and a year later engaged in the Mexican war, serving two years as regimental surgeon. After retiring from the army he returned to Indiana, locating at Beavay, and later removed to Indianapolis, where he remained practicing his profession until 1881, when he came to Pueblo. He had resided here continuously since that time, enjoying a large practice. Dr. Gale served as county and city physician for several years, and at one time was associated in the practice of medicine with Drs. King and Corwin.

He leaves a widow, two grown sons and two daughters, who will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement. Dr. Gale was in his 82nd year.

CARD OF THANKS.
