Mrs. J. C. Hartsoe.

A. M. Schoyer, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania lines, accompanied by a party of officials and friends, were in Pueblo a few hours yesterday evening en route to Salt Lake City.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of the late Frank Ebenback will be held today at 2 o'clock from the undertaking rooms of McMahon and Collier under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which order the deceased was a member. Veterans of the Spanish-American war will attend and will meet at 212 South Union avenue at 1 o'clock, clad in khaki uniforms.

The funeral of Earl Johnson will take place from the family residence in the Chambers and Wiley addition, at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Rosa Dutcher will take place from the family residence, 319 east Eighth street, at 1:30 and from Bethel M. E. church at 2 o'clock this afternoon.