IN CRITICAL CONDITION—After forty-eight hours of periodical unconsciousness, H. L. Begroot's condition remained unchanged. Begroot was assaulted by a footpad Sunday night as he entered his room in the Buckeye rooming house at 233½ south Union avenue and who was removed to St. Mary hospital with a fractured skull. He was robbed of $30. The police are still at work on the case but have been unable to unearth any evidence which will throw light on the case. Begroot's condition is critical and his chances for recovery are slight. His sister, Mrs. Gertrude Luick of Raton, N. M., has arrived in Pueblo and is in attendance at the hospital.

PASSOVER FESTIVAL—The prominent Jewish people of Pueblo are pre-horse trade.

But what is the use in trying to describe this play. It must be seen to be appreciated. Suffice to say it is one of the prettiest, sweetest stories ever told on any stage. If you want to see a real dramatic treat and wish to spend a wholesome and enjoyable evening get your tickets at once for Cloverdale, for judging by the way the seats are already selling, the "S. R. O."—Standing room only—sign will surely be hung out. Tonight. Curtain 8:00.
