western league have come to S and will match their prowess with the of our own Dixon-Millers, of the Pueblo Semi-Pro league.

The advance sale of seats has been gratifyingly heavy. The grandstand will be packed, and standing room on the side lines will be at a premium. "Ham" Patterson, manager of the Witches and first baseman par excellence, will get an ovation such as he has not assailed his ears since he took his abode in the southern portion of the Sunflower state.

He is the only player surviving the days when Pueblo owned the team which he now heads. The rest are strangers. But they will receive a warm welcome just the same, and their efforts on the Lake Minnequa field will be just as generously applauded tho they were in the same class with the Dixon-Millers.

Wednesday night will be danced at the lake.

The first elimination contest in the prize waltz series will be given at 10 o'clock. The five following couples will be pitted against each other, and one of them will be selected to dance against another couple next Friday evening. Louis Bartel and Miss Anna Cummings, Edward Lewis and Miss Nefferle, Albert Butcher and Miss Hilda Lonquist, Roy McCabe and Miss Maude Gray, Roy Barnard and Miss May Shepherd.

On the following Friday night the remaining winners will dance. Two winning couples of the elimination contests will have a final battle at 10 o'clock from Wednesday. It will be on that night that the grand prize winners will be determined.

Thousands of friends of the prize winners will be on hand at each elimination, to cheer their favorites on to victory. As with all the dances of the series, admission to the casino will be free. There will be dancing each evening, both before and after the contests. It will be free, also.

Labor day a week from today. Lake Minnequa park will be the scene of an official celebration. All kinds of contests and special attractions, including two band concerts by the Tremaine aggregation and three baseball games. No raise in prices. Ten cents at the gate—that's all.

Y., Aug. 29.—According to Sofia reports, the Over Seas News Agency says: "Bulgaria has postponed for some days, the signing of a treaty with Turkey, the quadrilateral entente having notified her that satisfaction at the present time, would be regarded as a wilfully unfriendly act. Nevertheless the two powers are in complete agreement."
