Dies When Near the Century Mark

Mrs. B. Gilligan, one of the oldest pioneers in Pueblo, passed peacefully away at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. La Graw, 310 east Evans avenue. She was 95 years old, and thirty of those years she spent in Pueblo.

There are three daughters and one son left to mourn her loss, Mrs. Mary Smith and M. L. Gilligan in Denver, and Mrs. A. La Graw and Mrs. Anna Dumeay of Pueblo.

The funeral will be held from the home of her daughter, 301 east Evans avenue, at 9:30 Wednesday morning, and from St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock. The remains will be laid to rest in the North Side cemetery.
