

was proposed that the officers hereafter be elected for two years instead of one. This question will be voted on at the next meeting. Plans were made for an entertainment to be given in the evening so that the fathers of the district may attend. Some interesting speaker will talk.

DIED

SMITH—Mrs. Eliza Lomie Smith, aged 37 years, died at a local hospital early Thursday morning. Mrs. Smith was brought from her home in La Veta for surgical treatment last Saturday. She is survived by her husband, S. L. Smith, and seven children ranging in age from 2 years to 14 years. The remains was shipped to La Veta last night by Davis & Vories, accompanied by the bereaved husband and other members of the family.

CARLO—Roco Antonio Carlo, the 5-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carlo, a prominent ranchman of the St. Charles mesa, died last night. Remains are at Davis & Vories.

United Undertaking Co. successors to McMahon & Collier, undertakers and embalmers, 132 S. Union Ave., 'phone 226; res. 'phone Main 1565. Private ambulance.

T. G. McCarthy, undertaker and embalmer, McCarthy block. Private automobile. Ambulance service. Office telephone M. 169. Residence E. 410.

Whiton Mortuary association, un-history which down through t

remained a me
was a fore-run
of girl singers
their footsteps paigns. It was dies were first
helping along
She was a men
appeared at mo
by Lincoln, and
mentoes as rem
the fate of a g
the balance.

WRECK

Trains Detour
With De

A freight tra
and Rio Grand
terday morning
eral hours. Ne 11:50 arrived he Santa Fe. The
formed of the Santa Fe road
late. The train
run to Palmer
detoured over
The wreck cons
of several box
to be cleared a
one was injure

TO OUR PAT

We are going