the coal and timber
been working around
investigating the al-
ls in the White Earth
n. He has come home
. He has been stand-
of his return looking
house, the new hotels provements which the
ne since he went away
r the progress of Pue-
keeping his eye on pond one of his remarks
me friends was that Colorado was sending to Chicago.

WANT ADS. BRING
HONE MAIN 55.

ON!

R.

&

bakers at the meeting yesterday. So there is nothing to worry about from this source for a year now.

Funeral Notices

The remains of William Reed were sent to Rye for interment yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Luenberg, who died in Victor Tuesday, was held yesterday morning from St. Patrick church. Interment was in Roselawn.

The funeral of Georgia Piscotta was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from McCarthy's chapel. Interment was in Roselawn.

The funeral of Mrs. Amelia Goodpasture was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence in Beulah. The choir sang "Rock of Ages," "Nearer, My God to Thee," and "Good Night." The pall bearers were Charles Everett, T. C. Rice, C. D. Colburn, O. S. Mackelfresh and J. J. Sease. Interment was in Beulah cemetery.

The funeral of Jerome Norman DeJarld was held yesterday morning at 10:30 from the home of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Black, 2315 Greenwood, the Rev. G. A. Lehman officiating. The body was sent by the United Undertaking company to Joliet, Ill., accompanied by his wife, son, two sisters and his father. The funeral was private.

The funeral of Frank E. Doudy was held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Davis & Vories, in charge of Rev. J. M. Linden. The Elks and Order of Railway Conductors attended in bodies. The pall bearers were Phillip Smith, J. B. Dorman, A. B. Harsh, D. L. Beatty, E. S. McDowell and Lee Hartigan. Interment was in Roselawn.

The remains of Edward Ward were forwarded by Davis & Vories yesterday to Ordway for interment.

Instead of Liquid

REVIVAL MEETI
meetings are being he
this week at the Pe Evangelist Tom Rogers
former Arizona sheriff,

LEAGUE SOCIAL—T
Lutheran league socia Mark's English Luther
day evening. All the y especially urged to atte

TWO COUPLES ARI
H. Williams and Miss E
both of Pueblo, wer County Judge Frank G.
day. Nasely M. Norris a Wood, both of Sugar C ried yesterday morning
E. Corson.

CLUB GIVES DANC
Ladies' Sodality of th
church will give one o ful dances tonight at hotel. A large number
been sold and the dance
a success, buth financi
wise.

GROUNDS FOR CIRC
sidering the question for advance manager of Bros. circus yesterday de site at Sixteenth and the location for the ci Several locations were the one chosen was consi
the circus people and well.

POLICE RECOVER
The police department w active yesterday in f
which have been stole recovered from the thi Officer McCafferty. The valued at about $30 eac
new and of standard ma
bicycles were recovered
day morning by Detecti Union avenue second ha