Mrs. Goodpasture Dies at Beulah

After a lingering illness of many months, Mrs. Ormelia Jane Goodpasture, wife of W. F. Goodpasture, and one of the oldest pioneers in this section, passed away at the family residence in Beulah where she had resided for thirty five years.

Mrs. Goodpasture was born in Morgan county Illinois, October 10, 1847. She was married to W. F. Goodpasture at Memphis Mo., in 1867 and ten years later came to Colorado with her husband. They settled in Beulah and have been among the foremost citizens since. Goodpasture, the community near Beulah was named after the couple who were so instrumental in its upbuilding.

The deceased is survived by a husband, W. F. Goodpasture, and five children, Clarence Goodpasture, Mrs. George Reynolds and Mrs. H. W. Gibson of Beulah, Mrs. L. B. Sellers of Mancos and Adam Goodpasture of San Francisco. The funeral will be held from the family residence in Beulah on Wednesday.
