DLO IN AD

d advertisement, paid for, the May number of The organ of the American bill a widely distributed pub-as inserted by the Curran ill posters, who operate in country and while an ap- ivertisers of the world to e Curran company, still it blo no injury. The follow- sentences appear in the Post

Pueblo, Colo.
ittsburg of the West
sperous City in the West Vacant House or Store
utput, $1,500,000 a Week
roll $350,000 a Week buting Center of Southern rn Colorado, the Greater
w Mexico and Utah.
6 Jobbing Houses
Great Trunk Lines
way to the Western Slope Afford to Leave this Rich Field to Others?
The Curran Co.
ll Value Advertising

RECK EXPERIENCES

Light Thrown on Sinking nic By British Inquiry

May 7.—Shipwreck experi- umed the time of the board iquiry into the Titanic dis- Only three witnesses were f. No new light was shed sinking of the steamer, be- facts elicited by the Ameri- rial committee.
nination was significant be- owed the government's de- to discover what steps to get off the third class

Vories and will be sent to Fort Collins for interment.

PISCOITTA—Tuesday, May 7, 1912. Georgia Piscoitta, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Piscoitta. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from McCarthy's chapel. Interment will be in Roselawn.

LUENBURG—Tuesday, May 7, 1912. Mrs. Elizabeth Luenburg, in Victor. The remains will be brought to Pueblo this morning and funeral will take place from St. Patrick's church soon after the arrival of the train. Interment will be in Roselawn.

Funeral Notices

The funeral of the infant of Mr and Mrs. W. E. Chambers of Nyberg, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence. Interment was in Mountainview.

The funeral of Mrs. Amelia J. Goodpasture will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence near Beulah. Interment will be in the Beulah cemetery.

The funeral of William M. Reed was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence 522 west Second street. The remains will be sent to Rye for interment in the Brookside cemetery.

The funeral of Julia A. Bohker was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, 1623 Spruce street. The services were conducted by Rev. G. L. Burroughs. Miss Clara and Carrie Acuff sang, "It is Well With My Soul," "We Will ever Say Good Bye," and "The Christian's Good Night." The pall bearers were J. W. Acuff, H. W. Mills, E. J. Means, S. A. Mills, J. G. Adams and W. F. Davies. Interment was in the family lot in Mountainview.

The funeral of Frank W. Doudy will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Davis and Vories chapel. Interment will be in Roselawn.

The funeral of George E. Bedell will

ARRANGINE BIG EXC

Arrangements are pr for Apple Blossom da next Sunday. Word the city yesterday that club at Florence has commodate 100 visitor them for a drive t Park and the famou Canon City free of ch

Extensive plans are the business men of conduct all the visito line Drive and othe Many automobiles ha for that purpose and tainment will be prov is expected that a lar Pueblo will attend th apple trees will be and the trip will be many.

The D. & R. G. wi excursion to Canon C ing Pueblo at 9 o'clo will be good on any but the special will the evening. Specjal the round trip have

Now is the time to rheumatism. You can ing Chamberlain's Li saging the parts free cation. For sale by

OUR NEW

Dundee Wo