the Greek church, corner of Spruce and Summit streets at 10 o'clock.

GRAVES—Saturday, August 29, 1908, in this city, James H. Graves of Rye. The remains are at the parlors of McMahon & Collier and will be taken to Rye Monday for interment. Deceased has been prominent in Rye mining circles for a number of years.

REEDS—Saturday, August 29, 1908, in this city, William L. Reeds, aged 83 years. The remains are at McCarthy's parlors, from where they will be sent to Trinidad today for inter-