ng and argu-
those out of
and become as
appy and full

cold the audi-
interest very
who came for-
ple gathered at
and a power-
prayer closed

be held at 10
lowing homes:
0 west Eighth
an, leader.
west Eighth
bell, leader.
Eighth street;
er.
block F; Rev.

104 block P;
ader.
1027 Claremont
ffey, leader.
west Eleventh
erson, leader.
ices there will
and a telling
Interest in the
nstantly.

Corset

ng

rth, expert cor-
ican Lady Cor-
te at S. Bern-
ing establish-
h Main street,
. Friday and
The ladies of
ted are cordial-
either of these
hard to fit are come, as Miss
al pleasure and
g the different
y Corsets suita-
figure.

tices.

one Lemanich,

in decorated china which she is showing prove her to be an artist of exceptional and unusual talent. During the exhibit many beautiful pieces were sold and orders were taken for many more, and all will no doubt gladden someone's heart on Christmas day.

We sell the best of everything that burns. We buy sacks. The Iron City Fuel Co., phone 240.

Prof. Gulliford Is Laid to Rest

With imposing impressiveness the funeral of the late Prof. William H. Gulliford was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Holy Trinity church. The Rev. William J. Cordick conducted the service of the Episcopal Church of England.

Mrs. John D. Kellogg and Mrs. William A. Middelkamp, with Mrs. A. S. Cuthbertson, as organist, sang "Abide With Me," and "Lead Kindly Light."

The Masons attended in a body and the following acted as pall bearers:

R. L. Frantz, F. W. Burch, W. C. Carrington, W. W. McAllister, P. H. Burton, and N. R. Cullings.

Professor Gulliford was very high in Masonic circles and was also a member of the Royal Arch Masons.

Owing to the family's request there were no flowers. The funeral was very large and was attended by many of the most prominent men in the city who valued the friendship of the deceased instructor to the fullest.

Interment was in the family lot in Roselawn cemetery.

AMUSEMENTS

"Kid Burns" Remarks.

Some of the wise and sage remarks of "Kid Burns," the race track plunger, who is being played by Mr. Victor Moore in Geo. M. Cohan's musical play, "The Talk of New York," which will be seen at the Grand Friday night, December 10, are very quotable. While they not only contain an abundance

gray, sec
associatio
Mr. Pet
talk of t
of mercha
remain u
be sold.
merchant
that in
here it
did not
—or at le
a license.
Mr. Gr
the discr
a shippi
granted
ably Hu
in great
ing done
roads for
as those

MI

"I wa
Mike, th
"The
a tip th
was sta
sas like
longer a
slightest
get out
this was
"Now
go over
the stuff
that the
out of S