Aged Vineland Pioneer Dies

In the death of Samuel Haney Vineland loses one of its best known and most highly respected residents. Mr. Haney was 62 years old, and came to Pueblo county thirty-five years ago, making the trip from the east in a prairie schooner.

He is survived by a wife and seven children, who reside on the large stock farm at Vineland. The funeral will be held at Vineland this afternoon at 3 o'clock.
