ut none just as & Southern for Denver.

ly trains between
Colorado Springs.

ENTS.

LIGAN."

ety and effulgent
d "Happy Hooli-
resented in this
lever comedians,
n wonders, spec-
y farce delineat-
ery cream of the
zed and acknow-
and managers
ry as being the
valuable. "Head-
to one organiza-
ng success with
sts form a for-
at is pleasing to
comedy by Frank
written and as
peller of merri-
of laughter, it
val of enthused
reciating public.
upon the Fred
he good-hearted
o all he can for
"done" himself.
a very strong
t amusing com-
situations and
ee acts are giv-
being considered
he audience a
ain their breath.
ew, bright and
hes of our most
The costumes are
e attire as well
music new, pope Grand tonight

Y."

musical comedy.
n at the Grand

with each purchase will still hold good. Everyone is invited to take advantage of this unparalelled offer as it will last only until February 22 when the store will be moved to the Leibhardt building.

DENVER & RIO GRANDE R. R.

Trains leaving Pueblo at 11:50 a. m. has through chair car to Portland every day. Only one change to Pendleton, Seattle and Tacoma and other Northwest cost points. Call at office in Central block for particulars.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of the late Virgil Trine is postponed awaiting the arrival of a message from Ralph Waldo Trine of Baltimore, brother of the deceased.

The funeral of Lee Hartman will take place from the family residence, 3424 Pine street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, under the auspices of Valley Camp No. 29. Interment at Riverview cemetery.

The funeral of Harry Baker will take place from the residence, corner Palmer and Northern avenues, at 3 o'clock and from the Mesa Presbyterian church at 3:30 this afternoon. Services will be conducted by Rev. Campbell. Interment at Mountain View.

The funeral of Tulsenzio Scasserro took place from McMahon & Collier's chapel at 1:30 and from Mt. Carmel at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Remains were interred at Riverview.

The funeral of Mabel V. Caddick took place from McMahon & Collier's chapel at 1:30 and from the Second Street M. E. church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Deceased was the wife of Joseph Caddick. The pallbearers were S. F. Williams, A. A. Rockwell, W. R. Johnson and C. A. Horton.

BOWLING SCORES.

According to Secretary Martin, of the Rover club, the Tight Wad bowling

avenue yesterday
of drunkenness
guage of an insul
tention of Officer
the man by a lad
trance recess of
The lady stated
proached her as
the street and ad
very unsavory re
avoid him but he
until she was for
a nearby store
along.

SEARCHING

Until different Adopted from the
it seems about
further effort to
It is also useless
cure disorders of
kidneys or bowels
tetters' Stomach B
renowned as a cu
It will strenghten
stomach, restore t
ulate the liver a
no medicine in th
Bitters to cure
burn, indigestion,
tion, liver and ki
laria, fever and
of a remedy of
to try the Bitters.
good. Don't acce

CITY NEW

PHILANTHRO
young gentlemen
thropic club will
of Mrs. Alexand
this evening.

HAY BURNED
standing on the
the brewery, wa
yesterday afterno
blaze could not

MADAM JARI