Henkel Funeral This Morning

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Henkel, wife of Charles Henkel, will be held from the family home, 319 West Ninth street at 9 o'clock.

The announcement was made last evening that the funeral services at St. Ignatius church, which will be held at 9:30 o'clock, will be private. Requium high mass will be celebrated by Rev. Father T. J. Wolohan. Interment will be in Roselawn.

It is probable that the funeral at the home today will be exceptionally largely attended, as Mrs. Henkel was widely known through her long residence in Pueblo and for the reason that the church services will not be open to the public. Mrs. Henkel was one of the pioneers of the city and was beloved by the many who knew her.
