ment was in the family lot in Roselawn cemetery, beside the grave of her mother, who was laid to rest three weeks ago.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Henkel will take place Monday morning from her late residence, 309 west Ninth street, at 9 o'clock, and from St. Ignatius' church at 9:30. The interment will be in the family lot in Roselawn cemetery.

The funeral of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith took place from the McCarthy chapel yesterday at 2 o'clock. The interment was in Roselawn cemetery.