in the city and have many friends who wish them all the happiness possible. The groom is chief electrician at the power house and enjoys a high standing in his chosen profession. The bride has been connected with Moch Bros' dry goods store, and enjoys a wide popularity. The newly married pair will make their home in Pueblo.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

INITIATE TONIGHT.—The Knights and Ladies of Security will this evening initiate a number of new members after which business of importance will be transacted, and refreshments will be served.

DELIGHTFUL RIDE.—Children of the Broadway M. E. church were given a trolley ride last evenng. The car was decorated with bunting and flags, and the young people enjoyed a delightful time.

INFANT CHILD DIED.—Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Higgins, formerly of Pueblo, but now of St. Louis. Spinal meningitis was given as the cause.

SAUNDERS-CARDILLO.—Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Saunders and Florrie Cardillo, the groom being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Cardillo, Sunday, June 30. Following the wedding there will be a banquet at the Board of Trade hall at 3 p. m.

CHIEF ENGINEER.—George Coates, father of Lieutenant Governor David C. Coates, will leave today for Denver where he assumes the position of chief engineer at the capitol building after July 1. He succeedes Charles McGuire, who has been chief engineer for some years past.

IN NEW BUSINESS.—Ed Crail has forsaken the laundry business and has bought out the Royal stables on south Union avenue from John Merz. He will conduct a first-class livery business, boarding and feeding stables and expects to add considerably to the equip-