olled.
be done
ecure an ation or issioners orts can te from

ete., and what proportion is carried on through the issuing of checks.

Mr. Beatty answered the letter stating that he would be glad to co-operate with the national monetary commission in all of the matters referred to in the letter.

LL
SPUR

spect the railway
law cre-
commis-
of the railroad itches as shipped llows its
on these words if
to unload
switch at all roads
tomers of d at that arge for

commis-
s feature.
as drafted
tate com-
except the

by the old
public to-
known as he Union
is Ryan's
freight is away. It
to accept elivery to purposes.

YOUNG MAN KILLED WHEN HE ATTEMPTS TO BOARD A TRAIN

Special to The Chieftain.

La Junta, Jan. 21.—A young man by the name of William Higgins, employed at the Santa Fe railroad round house, was crushed and killed this morning by being caught between the tank of a moving engine and the side of the round house building.

He attempted to get on the engine, but was caught and rolled along by the train in a space only a few inches wide.

He lived about forty minutes after the heartrending accident. He is a single man about 20 years of age. His parents live in this city.

ONE IS SENTENCED; ONE IS ACQUITTED

Special to The Chieftain.

Leadville, Jan. 21.—J. L. Miles, convicted here for burglary, was today sentenced by the judge of the district court to serve from one year to thirty months in the penitentiary. Burt Wells, who was tried for entering the Taylor drug store six weeks ago with an alleged intent to commit larceny, was acquitted. Wells claimed that he

FEAR
SC

Special
Denv
indicat
whethe
govern
dian s
to be
One of
the oth
is a no
ernmen
these