LAID TO REST.

Funeral Ceremonies of the Late Mrs. John L. Hildreth Yesterday.

The funeral of Mrs. John L. Hildreth, held at the family residence on Water street yesterday afternoon was attended by a large number of family friends. The weather was bright and pleasant and all that could be asked in that respect. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. J. C. Hay, pastor of the Central Christian church, and there was appropriate music by the members of the church choir. About the casket were several very beautiful floral pieces. A large pillow with the word "Mother" artistically worked in it was from the family. An anchor came from the city officials, and a very nice piece came from Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Latshaw. Others who sent floral tokens of their sympathy were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Thomas Connor and Joseph Wilson.

When the ceremonies had been concluded at the house the following friends bore the casket to the funeral car: George H. Hobson, Judge J. F. Smith, J. W. Callaway, Nathan Morris, H. O. Morris and Benjamin Mattice, and they were taken to the city cemetery for burial. The procession was quite a long one, there being about 25 carriages and other vehicles. The usual ceremonies were performed there and the remains consigned to a final resting place.
