Hines Funeral

The funeral of John T. Hines, late joint agent at the Union depot, took place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, from St. Patrick's church. The funeral services were conducted by Father W. J. Howlett, of St. Ignatius church, who spoke of the deceased as a citizen and a man. The following musical numbers were rendered: "Lead Kindly Light" and "Nearer My God to Thee" by the quartet, "O Salutaris" by George M. Vail, "Ave Marie" by Mrs. Dalton, soprano, "Calvary" by Miss May Collier, contralto.

The casket was covered with many beautiful floral offerings from friends of the deceased.

The following acted as pall bearers: W. H. Tate, William Young, P. Keys, John McKee, Michael Finnerty and James Kelly.

The flower bearers were John Maroney and W. A. Kelly.
