NO SESSIONS HELD.

Neither division of the district court was in session yesterday. Judge Voorhees is still holding court at La Junta.

Boyle, D. D., of the Westminster Presbyterian church officiated. Mrs. Hodges came to Pueblo from Washington, D.C., only two weeks ago, and bought property next door to her daughter, intending to make this city her home. She was in good health at the time of her arrival, but took pneumonia and died quickly. Interment in the Riverview cemetery.

ASTOUNDED THE EDITOR.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my health was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from the stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at the Baldwin Drug Co.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A HOOSIER DAISY" AT THE GRAND TONIGHT.

"A Hoosier Daisy," a pastoral comedy drama, new to the patrons of Grand Opera house, will be presented this evening, May 10. A gawky, awkward, yet withal wise country girl is the central character around which the author has written a dramatic story that is new to the stage. For this reason, if no other, the production will win both the admiration and attention of the public. Miss Bessie Clifton, who portrays the title role "A Hoosier Daisy" gives to the stage a new character study that is as original a conception as any yet introduced in drama. The entire support is of the best and list includes such well known players as G. Harris Eldon, Claude Boardman, Rush W. Thompson, Caroline Farrell, Dorcetta Morris, Marie Addis, and others. Elegant scenery is carried for each act and a thoroughly first class production of a pure wholesome comedy is assured. Seats on sale this morning. Prices 75, 50 and 25 cents.

"PINAFORE."

The first stage rehearsal of "Pinafore," the opera to be given for the ladies of Guild of Holy Trinity," was held in St. Andrews hall last night. The rehearsal was so good that nothing better could be hoped for the night of the performance. The sale of tickets will be large and the pretty little hall of St. Andrews, it is hoped, will be packed to the doors on next Wednesday and Thursday nights.

AT THE LYCEUM.

Today will be prize matinee at the Lyceum family theatre, 126 west Third street, and prizes will be given away at the matinee performance this afternoon. "Falsely Accused," which has been such a hit will be presented and a large audience should greet it at the performance both at the matinee and tonight, for today and tomorrow are the last days of the stock company, as it closes its engagement Sunday. Monday a first repertoire company will open, and it is said to be one of the best in the business. They will play a week's engagement.

ATTRACTING FASHIONABLE PEOPLE.

Kathryn Kidder's engagement in "The Country Girl" at the Grand on May 20 will undoubtedly draw one of the largest and most fashionable audiences of the present theatrical season. When the first announcement appeared of Miss Kidder's coming, inquiries were started and reservation of seats made at the box office. Many of those who have signified their intention of being present are prominent in social circles and several theater parties have already formed to attend the performance. Miss Kidder's repertoire this season is reported to be one of the strongest that has ever been engaged in this line, and is said to include the leading players are Norman Hackett, Robert V. Ferguson, T. C. Hamilton, H. L. Davidson, F. S. Cash, Raymond Stratton, T. C. O'Brien, Marion Ashworth.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often become troublesome sores. Even where delay has aggravated such injuries DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. It was suggested that one of the best means of bringing the real estate men of the city together would be a weekly luncheon at some hotel at which various topics of intrest to realty men could be discussed, and it was practically decided that these will be held. C. E. Cherrington, W. C. Carrington and L. L. Olds were named as a committee on arrangements and O. W. Mallaby, C. K. Mellarge and E. J. Scott were appointed a committee on program for the luncheon.
