FUNERAL NOTICE.

One of the most largely attended funerals ever held in Pueblo was that of Patrick Howe, which was held yesterday afternoon at 1:30 at his late residence, corner of Main and B. streets. Rev. Father Brunner conducted the services at the home, and at St. Patrick's church at 2 o'clock. Flower bearers and pall bearers were selected from the Ancient Order of Hibernians, of which deceased was president, and many members of which were in attendance. The floral offerings were profuse and beautiful.

Many of the relatives and friends of deceased followed the remains to the Riverview cemetery.

THE SANTA FE.
