through the contest of two years ago before the supreme court they found that Attorney Waldron had gone to the district court before he went to the supreme court and asked Judge Palmer to take charge of the pending election in the same manner as Judge Johnson took charge this time. In their brief today, the attorneys for Judge Johnson recite the incident of Mr. Waldron's application to the district court as follows:

"On November 1, 1904, Mr. Waldron appeared before Peter L. Palmer, district judge in and for the city and county of Denver, and presented an application similar to that presented to

DROWNS IN RIVER

Special to The Chieftain.

Telluride, June 21.—Bob Howell was drowned in the Dolores river, five miles this side of Cico near the coke ovens, Tuesday afternoon. He was on his return home with a team. He tried to ford the river, but his horses are supposed to have become unmanageable, and the entire outfit was carried down stream. The horses were found 100 yards below the ford. The body has not yet been found.

Howell was about 45 years of age.

Bill Sent to Conference.

By Associated Press.

Washington, June 29.—The house today sent to conference the socalled "immunity of witnesses" bill, the conferees on the part of the house being Jenkins, Littlefield and DeArmond.

The house concurred in the senate amendments to the following bills: Regulating the fisheries of Alaska; to postpone until 1937 the maturity of $250,000 of 4 per cent United States bonds held in trust for the benefit of the American Printing House for the Blind; an act to declare and endorse the forfeiture provided by the act of 1873 entitled "an act granting to railroads the right of way through the public lands of the United States."
