n of the crime and the
the victim of last night's t to work of the blackto a sheriff's deputy, but were not entirely those of he band. But again, the ello but recently drew
money he had coming
works and quit his job,
o indicate that he might
receipt of a threatening
ning a money demand.
ng the blackhand theory
upposed that the young
to a specified spot at the
his persecutors, and there for some unknown rea-

money Aiello had when he
at 6 o'clock is not known
er. The former did not e was going when he left d never had confided to hat he had received Black ds or threats. How he
everal miles from the city ter he left his home is a
his brother cannot an-

otive for the shooting in the deputies of the sherrs have but little upon e their operations. They rk along two distinct lines are not overlooking the theory at all, while con-rch for the murderer.
llo was well known by a talians in the city, as he t the steel works for some not known that he had an
those who knew him well
did not have enough mon-the energies of the Black et him for a victim. The
ry must be thrown aside,
are left with but two theo-
that the crime was com-enemy, or that Aiello has victim of the Black Hand.

CIANS
C CONCERT

at public auction, regardless of cost. He will sell you horses at private sale any time you may call on him, and anything you may buy from Mr. Grisham will be sold on a strict guarantee that it will be just as represented or your money refunded. People who want horses or mules will do well to call at the Eureka barn and get acquainted with Mr. Grisham. He will today receive his first carload of horses, and there will be some good ones in the lot. You are invited to call and look them over.

DIED.

McCOY—Thursday, December 29, 1910, George H. McCoy, aged 64 years. The remains are at McCarthy's and the funeral announcement will be made later.

SCOTT—Thursday, December 29, 1910, Lillian, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott, of Sidney, Neb. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Mrs. Edie M. Hugins will be held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the family residence, 822 east Seventh street and at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist church. Rev. W. T. Campbell will conduct the services and interment will be in Mountain View.

DIAMONDS

We do our own diamond setting, which is under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. Otero, whose reliability and taste in such matters is known and recognized by all the people of Pueblo. Come in and let him make you a design. You will be pleased and satisfied with our work.

THE CORNWELL JEWELRY CO.,
222 N. Main St.

Travis Is Golf Winner.

Pine Hurst, N. C., Dec. 29.—Walter J. Travis of Garden City, won the

warmer Friday; Sa
probably rain or snow
tion.

"SLACO" is better
Try it. Iron City F
or 292, White Triangle

Arrive Jus
in Time
Daugh

Racing from Creed
upon the receipt of th
the condition of th
serious, and that dea
any moment, E. W
wife, arrived here in Rose Belle Soward b
her last at a loca
day.

Miss Soward, who
was a student at
About a week ago
being ill, and an
physician showed tha appendicitis. The
taken to a hospital
until several days la
dition alarmed her
cians.

The father, who is
man, of Creede, whe
serious condition
chartered a special
to Pueblo. Death
and the remains pro
to Creede for burial,
ments have not as y

G. A. R.

The annual me
memory of comrade
during the year 191
Pueblo post and
tions, at G. A. R. h
ing, Dec. 31. Relativ
specialy invited to