1906 Welcomed By Puebloans

If there was anybody in Pueblo who did not know the exact moment of the entering of the new year, it was not because of any lack of demonstration and noise.

At the instant the hands of the clock pointed 12, such a din of screeching whistles and firing of revolvers as was turned upon the stillness of night cannot be comprehended by those who slept through it all.

At various churches in the city watch meetings were held at midnight in observance of the new year. The members of the Salvation Army also met at the barracks, and shortly after 12 o'clock paraded the streets in the downtown district for a short time.

The man who may claim the distinction, if such it may be called, of being the last prisoner to be brought to the station during the year 1905, is Edward Anderson, who was caught trying to break into a Union avenue grocery store. Detective Hill made the arrest.

For any disease of the skin there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Salve. It relieves the itching and burning sensation instantly and soon effects a cure. Sold by all druggists.
