SNOW DELAYS TRAINS—The heavy snow that fell during Monday night and part of yesterday, covered the platforms at the depot to considerable depth and the express companies employed a horse to haul the tracks to and from the trains. The snow was quite general throughout the state and as a result the passenger trains were slightly off schedule.

CENTRAL W. C. T. U.—The Central W. C. T. U. will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the lecture room at the First Presbyterian church. As January 3 is the birthday anniversary of Madam Willard, mother of Frances E. Willard, an appropriate programme will be observed today.

CLERK MOVED UP—Samuel Smith, who has been chief clerk to Chief Dispatcher Payne of the Santa Fe, has been promoted to third-trick dispatcher and will have the dispatching of trains between Pueblo and La Junta. The resignation of one of the regular dispatchers brought about Smith's promotion and other minor changes in the different tricks are to be made.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of the late George W. James, took place from McCarthy's chapel at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Henry. Interment was in the family lot at the North Side cemetery.
