

league of three international league cities: Toronto, Baltimore and Buffalo, asserted that the new league's leaders were not fighting fair and predicted that "their tactics will only bring them to grief." "In the first place," Mr. Barrow said, "they are trying to masquerade as a major league when they never can become one. They have about four major league players to a team, but that will not make them a major league. They have a minor league circuit. Toronto, Baltimore and Buffalo turn out good crowds but they do not turn out major league crowds."

"The players who jumped to the Federals were disloyal to their employers. Men like Tinker, Brown and Knabe were in organized baseball long enough to know that loyalty to the reserve clause is one of the foundations of organized baseball and as much a part of their contract as their salaries. The international league will fight these fellows to a finish in any of our cities where they intend to place them."

Central Quintet in Hard Training for Springs Game

The members of the Central high school basketball team are training with increased vigor this week for their battle Friday night with the Terrors of the Colorado Springs high school. The game will be played at the Y. M. C. A. gym in Colorado Springs. The Springs team were defeated last week at Canon City and expect one of the hardest games of the season when they meet the Central team. The exact line-up of the Central team has not been decided but will include a number of last year's stars.

Fuehlean After Ski Honors

Figurd Gulbransen of Norway, who is at present making his home at 1220 east Abriendo avenue and is employed at the steel works is going to Denver Wednesday to start training for the ski contest which is to be held Sunday, January 15. Gulbransen has won amateur honors in Norway and although he has not done any ski work since his short stay in this country, he is confident of bringing the honors home to Pueblo. Mr. Gulbransen is going on a special invitation of the committee in charge.

Miss Richards was a most beloved girl and possessed a truly Christian character and was loved by all who knew her. She was fifteen years of age and though a sufferer for many months, was always cheerful and remained so until the end. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. George J. Richards, and a sister, Pauline Richards, both residents of this city. The remains were removed to McCarthy's and the funeral will occur from the late residence, tomorrow morning at 9:30 and from Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be in Roselawn cemetery.

NOWBURN, Geo. well known in eastern Colorado where for many years he had been in the cattle business, passed away in this city at a local hospital, following an illness of three months. Mr. Norburn was 69 years of age and very well to do. He was brought to Pueblo from his home near Lima Junction, Colo., a short time ago and placed in a local hospital. Every care and medical attention was given him in the hopes that he would recover, but he grew steadily worse, however, until he passed away yesterday. The remains were removed to McCarthy's and will be forwarded this morning to his home for burial.

DIANA, Joseph, aged 23 years, died yesterday at his home, 187 south Santa Fe avenue. The remains were removed to McCarthy's and the funeral announcement will be made later.

JOHNSON, Robert B., aged 23 years, died at his temporary apartments, 151 Main street where he had resided since coming to Pueblo a short time ago. Mr. Johnson came to Pueblo from Texas for the benefit of his health but he came too late and the terrible white plague had so undermined his health that he gradually became weaker until death relieved his sufferings yesterday. The remains were removed to McCarthy's and will be forwarded to Texarkana, Texas, accompanied by his wife.

Sure of a Place

Employment Agent — "Any recommendations from your last place?"
Applicant—"No."
"Where did you work last?"
"In a railroad resaturant."
"Discharged?"
"Yes."
"What for?"
"I made the coffee too strong, an' cut the meat too thick."
"Say! here's two dollars. Wait a few days, and I'll try to work you into my boarding house."—Ex.

"Nearer My God to Thee." The pall bearers were: Pascal Poe, Edward Hildenbrand, Robert Hamlin, Ed. C. Betts, Clarence Studzinski and Robert Ridgway. Interment was in Roselawn cemetery.

Isbell Gets Postcards

Manager Frank Isbell of the Des Moines baseball club, is in receipt of postal cards from "Red" Faber and "Tip" O'Neill, both of whom are members of the White Sox-Giants world touring teams. The cards were mailed from Honolulu several days ago by the ball men who are now en route to open a series of games in Australia.

O'Neill is going to take but a part of the world trip. He will start for home in time to arrive in this country several weeks ahead of the rest of the party. Faber has been sold to the White Sox for next season and if he makes good he will become a regular member of the pitching staff of that aggregation. If he fails he will be returned to Des Moines.

"Crowds, Junior"

Doubleday, Page & Co., announce that in response to repeated requests from readers of "Crowds," by Gerald Stanley Lee, they are bringing out a miniature edition of the book, under the title "Crowds Junior." The little volume is announced by the publishers as "a chip of the old block"—it is a collection of some of the more remarkable and thought-provoking passages from "Crowds." Those who have been interested in the book in its original form will be glad to see it issued in a smaller compass.

And in connection with "Crowds," Alice Kent Stoddard's new portrait of Gerald Stanley Lee is now on exhibition at the Art Club in Philadelphia.
