been laid away, but this one seems to have acquired a new lease of life. This season's company includes George C. Boniface, Jr., Gus Pixley, F. W. Bernard, M. L. Heckert, Robert Deshon, J. Trew Gray, Arthur Villars, D. W. Siegrist, D. H. Landon, Helen Baird, Agnes Burke, Adeline Mann and Mildred Keith. Seats on sale Tuesday morning.

WANTED.

Twenty intelligent laborers to assist on floor laying at factory at Sugar City; 20 cents per hour paid, and from 7 to 9 days time can be put in per week. Enquire at Bartlett, Hayward & Co's, office, Sugar City.

DIED.

JOHNSTON—Sunday, September 30, 1900, at his home, 15 block L, John M. Johnston, aged 73 years.

Funeral announcement later.

MORROW—Sunday, September 30, 1900, Mrs. Luzio Morrow, aged 34 years.

Funeral from Union avenue and D street today at 1:30 p. m.

THE STREET FAIR.

During the progress of the Street fair we will be fully prepared to fill every order promptly. The past week has taxed our full strength to keep up with the rush of trade. But we will be better prepared than ever to meet every demand made upon us during fair week.

If you need glasses made to order remember we are manufacturers and can do them for you quickly. It is not necessary to send away for anything in our line. We have it here. Please place your orders as early in the week as possible. Every order will be executed promptly and will receive our individ-