ONER'S JURY RETURNS VERDICT

e body of Anson Sturgeon, the hman who was killed in the Santa ards at the Pueblo smelter, Wedy morning, was shipped to Parkrg, W. Va., last evening accomd by J. Miller, a member of the hmen's union to which Sturgeon ged.

oner Fugard yesterday completed inquest over the body and the returned a verdict to the effect the deceased came to his death eing run over by a switch engine in performance of his duties. The further found that death was the t of negligence on the part of the any through its employes and ces-the company. According to the nce it was found that the hand which broke and let the deceased o his death had been broken the before in a collision with box and the night switching crew it when they turned in the en-as one of the men had fallen in ame manner as Sturgeon, but the e was going backwards and so as not hurt. The crew did not t the matter to the company, how-and for this reason the jury red the crew.
