tory

inning
ck last
the low-
excite-
ar be it
the Inher they number

hat, and to the
just as
as often.
things to ng as if re fight-

DIED

PEARSON—Thursday, June 20, 1907, at the residence, 202½ north Santa Fe avenue, George W. Pearson, aged 46 years. Deceased was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and the remains are at McCarthy's undertaking parlors awaiting the arrival of relatives from Tennessee to complete arrangements for the funeral, announcement of which will be made later.

JONES—Thursday, June 20, 1907, in this city, Thomas W. Jones, aged 40 years. Deceased was a former policeman in this city and a brother of David W. Jones, who is also a former member of the police department. The remains are at West Bros. & Whiton's undertaking rooms awaiting the arrival of his brother from Trinidad to arrange for the funeral, announcement of which will be made later.

DE VOLL—Thursday, June 20, 1907, at 926 Bragdon avenue, Alfred DeVoll, of Las Vegas, N. M., aged 50 years. The remains are at the undertaking rooms of McMahon & Collier, being held awaiting funeral arrangements.

GRAY—Thursday, June 20, 1907, Henry Gray, of Cripple Creek, aged 48 years. The remains are at Linkins & Vories' undertaking parlors awaiting arrangements for removal to Cripple Creek for interment.

ARMONCA—Thursday, June 20, 1907, at the family home in Avondale, Agoseo, 15-months-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armonca. The fun-

TRIAL

By Asso

St. Pe
the fou
Kolpach
in the
of the
of Just
Min an
began
The f
frequen
of Dur
month,
to kill
early and an sisted
the rai
before
and dis
Later
street
and a
into cu
Min, w ing the
linsky,
noble
suspici
found
a revo
attemp
access