and different points in
. Lyons hopes the trip
benefit to her health.
. and Mrs. James Ho-
erly resided in Pueblo
ving in Santa Monica.
ad to know that they
over a son born last Hogan is a nephew of his city and he and his
ere for years.
uarles, district cashier States Telegraph and
pany, left today for ergo an operation for
Mr. H. P. Stammel,
Canon City telephone
ed Saturday with his
act as district cashier
aries' absence.

ERIES RETURNS BY
CALL UP ELLIOTT
D STORES, MAIN
4.

NGE FROM POLICE

, Who Was Guarding
Much Per-
turbed

r, the genial janitor at much perturbed "cullud
e says "suah to good-
om and Mistah Joe will
me that they'll suah uiry as to Harve's pererday afternoon devel-rve was indeed in a sterday afternoon Chief Daly looked with dis-
e condition of a leather graces, his office. "I better take that out and scrubbing, Harve," the
d. "Suah enuff, boss."

and if she thinks that she is really the one for whom they are searching she will make a trip to Tennessee. She is confident that she is the Kate Moran wanted and asks that any relatives of hers by the name of Robinson, or Raider communicate with her at the above address sometime today.

DIED

KELLING—Mrs. Margaret Wilson Kelling, aged 37 years, died at the family residence 1210 East Eighth street early yesterday morning. She was the wife of J. J. Kelling, of the firm of Kelling & Hudspeth. Mrs. Kelling had been ill for the past two years and while her death was not wholly unexpected, it came nevertheless as a shock to her many friends. The funeral was held yesterday evening at 8 o'clock in McCarthy's funeral chapel. The large chapel was filled with sorrowing friends of the deceased. Mrs. Leota Dye, the Christian Scientist reader, conducted impressive service for the dead. Miss Irma Hudspeth sang Thomas sang "Still, Still With Thee." "Lead, Kindly Light," and Miss Elinor Thomas sang "Still, Still With Thee." The remains will be forwarded this morning at 10 o'clock to Jackson Center, Pa., for interment. The husband and other relatives of the deceased will accompany the remains.

Funeral Notices

The funeral of Mrs. Frederick Zarn will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence 423 W. Fourth street. Interment will be in Roselawn cemetery, under direction of T. G. McCarthy & Co.

Miss Morris Resting Easy

Miss Edith Morris, who was severely injured when an automobile containing necessarily mean

battle. Alex. J. St
fend the Italians, a District Attorney
be on the firing li
tion.

WILL PLAY

Commerce Club
Try and C
Ball

Marshalling as
of ball players as
gether from amo
the Pueblo Comm
Duncan will advan
Thursday to do b
aggregation of ball
mercial organizatio
gave the local bo
week.

Each team has
Thursday will b
Florence bunch
strength in their
showed conclusvel
pects to carry aw
have to produce so
end Captain Du picked his team
bunch of novices
with the Floren
proposes to make
All the stores an
be closed for the
whole town will tu
game. The Pueblo
the Commerce cl
12:30 o'clock Thu

United Undertaking
to McMahon &
and embalmers,
'phone 226; r.a.
vate ambulance.