Kelly Funeral

The funeral of John T. Kelley, who was killed in a railroad accident at Trinidad, was held at eight o'clock last night at the chapel of the T. G. McCarthy Mortuary. The services were under the auspices of B. P. O. E. No. 90. Exalted Ruler B. F. Koperlik gave the funeral eulogy and the services were from the beautiful and impressive Elk's ritual. The casket was nearly hidden by the beautiful floral offerings of brother Elks, relatives, friends and members of the O. R. C. who attended in a body.

The remains were to have been sent last night to Newton, Kansas, for interment but owing to the non-arrival of a brother they will not be forwarded until he arrives.
