& Co., undertakers
Carthy block. Telence phone 410-A.

OUNTAINS
STREET CAR

e famous Georgeunday will be like
ockies in a street
ation cars will be
ne of our new oil
No smoke, no dust,
g but an unob-
he best scenery in train from Union
n. $3.50 round trip.
ffice for our Loop
information about

WN LOOP.

ed Georgetown loop
$3.50. Special train
7:20 a. m. Over the vation cars, drawn engine. No smoke.
s.

OVAL.

ed his residence to street. Phone 441B.

lithia water is used Grand hotel.

lithia water at the
ne all kinds of good your meals. Served of the hotel.

ciating minister, Rev. J. L. Weaver, Miss Ezella McMillan of Evansville, Indiana, to J. A. Hatchell of this city.

DIED.

DAVIS—Wednesday, June 25, 1902, in this city, Theodore Davis, aged 43 years.

The remains will be shipped today to Boulder accompanied by wife of the deceased.

GILL—Wednesday, June 25, 1902, at 612 east River street, Mary Fleming Gill, the one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gill.

The funeral from the home at 9 o'clock Thursday, Rev. Marshall conducting the service.

DAVIS—Wednesday, June 25, 1902, at 151 Mechanics street, Silas M. Davis, aged 21 years.

The funeral will take place from the home at 9:30 Friday morning.

KIRK—Wednesday, June 25, 1902, at 616 east Fifth street, David Glenn, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kirk.

The funeral will take place from the Fountain Presbyterian church today at 3 o'clock, Rev. D. G. Montfort conducting the service.

CHURCH—Wednesday, June 25, 1902, at 2023 Grand avenue, Mrs. Maud Antonette Church, aged 26 years.

Funeral announcement later.

To Rent

UNION LABEL
$2.75, $3.00 and $3.50

BOOB

Popular Price Cl
ers, 183 North Uni
to Fariss hotel.

18 Years

EIGHTH YEA

GEO. D.

MANUFACTU

312 No

Eves Exa