is well fitted to adorn
he home of her hus-TAIN wishes Mr. and
g and happy life and
n this wish it is joined
the two young people.

MRS. MALEHAM.

Mrs. Ada Maleham oct 4 o'clock from the leceased, and was very
y friends of the be-
v. E. Trumbull Lee,
J. D. Murphy, D. D., f but impressive serv-
nd at the grave. Rev.
rvices with prayer, and f Ages" was sung by urphy then read the
s from the scriptures:
Corinthians 15, 51-57;
4, 13-18, and Revela-
Lee followed with a t prayer, and Rev.
d the benediction, af-
were given an oppor-
e remains. The long ended its way to the
where the concluding
ld, the choir singing yond the River." The Messrs. G. J. Dun-
ke, Paul Wilson, J. N.
Quaid and L. B. Strait.
ngs were the most nu-
ful we have ever seen
eblo, strongly attest-
esteem of those who
d in life and appre-
ip and true womanly

Mitchell, appealed from the county court. The decision reverses the ruling of the court below and is against the legality of a garnishment of a municipal corporation.

Royal Gorge excursion postponed until Sunday, May 4.

"I wish I was a dog," was the remark made by a passer-by while gazing at that beautiful line of dog collars at J. M. Killin & Co.'s, 206 south Union avenue.

DEATH OF H. F. KIRK.

After an illness lasting a little over two weeks, Mr. H. F. Kirk passed quietly away at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning. His death was due to heart failure.

Mr. Kirk was born in Ohio, and was about 41 years of age. He came to Pueblo about seven months ago and opened a real estate office in the Grand hotel. During his short stay in this city he had been remarkably successful in business and had made many friends, whose heartfelt sympathies go out to his wife and son in this hour of bereavement.

The date of the funeral will be announced in to-morrow's paper.

Dr. C. E. Robb, dentist, 16 years practice in Pueblo. Office 406 Santa Fe avenue. tf

Buy your carpets, curtains, oil cloths and linoleums at the store of the PAUL WILSON DRY GOODS CO.

Ready May 1. The new houses, 14th street. For sale only. Easy terms. C. C. Stein.

third son of Queen V 1851—Great London exhi
October.
1862—New Orleans form
under Gen. B. F. But
ment of the gulf.
1862—Opening of the I
South Kensington, E 1863—Union victory at
known as Magnolia
ment in Grant's camp
Union loss, 853; Conf
1863—Battle of Chancello
engagements until th manded by Gen. Joe
Robert E. Lee. Unio
battles, 16,300; Confe
1865—Alliance between B
gentine Confederatio 1871—The Communists
revolution.
1872—Great eruption of
ning April 14.
1873—Opening of Intern
enna.
1876—Queen Victoria pro 1885—Death of Cornelius merchant, aged 76.

A stylish all wool
at Gann's for $6.50.

Schilling's fine fl
kept by Milton Sper
street, Swift block.

P. O. Gaynor, cit
ployed J. A. Jaeger
creased the force
now prepared to do
his line.

Overalls, shirts an
Gann's at slaughter