men are for Beaman and McKee and mean to elect them by the largest majority ever given in Pueblo county. Organized labor is for its friends and Mr. Beaman has made a fair and impartial sheriff, not showing favoritism to either side and doing justice to all, and it is no more than right that the laboring men show their appreciation by giving him a second term.

"If you want to vote a laboring ticket vote for Beaman of the Typographical union for sheriff, and Johnnie McKee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen for treasurer.

M. J. SULLIVAN,
EDWARD E. ROSS,
LEW BREWER,
N. D. RITTER,
T. J. FINNEGAN,
A. A. WILSON,
And twenty-eight others.

OBITUARY.

PETER KIRWIN.

Peter Kirwin, whose death occurred last evening, was well known among the smelter and railroad men of this city. He had many friends among the former who will remember him kindly. The funeral will be held from the corner of Union avenue and D street Monday morning at 9 o'clock and from St. Patrick's church at 9:30. Friends are invited to be present.

MRS. MARGARET JONES.

Mrs. Margaret Jones, beloved wife of Morgan Jones, died Friday morning, November 3, at her home, 114 north Main street, after a continued weakness and a gradual decline of many months. She was born in South Wales, January 7, 1831, where she grew to young womanhood, removing with her family to this country, in 1847, living first at Pittsburg. There she was married September 16, 1851, to Morgan Jones. Soon the new formed family moved to Johnstown, where they lived for many years. In 1863 Cleveland, Ohio, became their home and when fifteen years had passed they again moved westward and took up their residence at Chase, Kas. A year ago and more the family moved to Pueblo and a better Christian family never came