LINGTON

othing oldfash
ment. Leaders
way of comfort
ir patrons. Call
office, Centra
culars.

NG PUBLIC.

ently located at
on on and after
ne of Pullman's
open for occu-
porters always sleeper is at-
n No. 6, leaving
.05 p. m., and is
veral hours for
ving the city.
convenient than

blo county, Henry A. Benesch and Miss Della Josephine Brown, Rev. J. C. Hay, pastor of the Central Christian church, officiating.

DIED.

PHILLIPS—Wednesday, March 11, 1896, at his home, 121 east Fourth street, Melvin J. Phillips, aged 25 years.

Funeral from the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

KORBER—Wednesday, March 11, 1896, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Korber, 706 west Sixteenth street, George Korber, aged 5 years.

Funeral from the family home this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

ONLY "ONE NIGHT" PUEBLO TO ST. LOUIS.