spreading fields of f any one, after seeertisement, had inpular phrase of the tter with Gilmore's
d generous response t's all right.' The
ry adjunt, and it is
ese happy and skill-
armful or absolutely
ull, stupid drama,
s success in the pub-
as to shriek for aid
The several ballets
mptations' are un-
direction of Mons.
was brought ex-
Scala theater, Milan,
d direct the ballets
more's enterprises."

TOPICS.

p to Denver yester-

ools closed yester-

of Boston, was in

ave to-day for a six
st.

Thirteenth street to
done on it.

of Sacramento, Cal.,
yesterday.

H. Canning, of Las
ity yesterday.

Extra chairs will also be placed in the Grand opera house so there will be accommodations for all who desire to attend. The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Presents of flowers and other gifts may be sent to the homes of the graduates or to the flower tables on the stage, but they can not be presented at the conclusion of individual orations, nor before the public.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

John S. Kummerer with Mrs. Kummerer attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Helen Bradfield yesterday afternoon and after handing Mrs. Kummerer into a carriage and stepping in himself Mr. Kummerer fell back unconscious. He was taken into the Bradfield house and Dr. Slemmons and Dr. Corwin summoned. Mr. Kummerer was found to be suffering from the bursting of a blood vessel in the brain, and the physicians said he would not live. He partially regained consciousness for a few moments after being taken into the house but again became unconscious, and remained so until he died, just at midnight. The funeral has not yet been set, but it will be in charge of the Odd Fellows, of which Mr. Kummerer was a prominent member.

The Hanging of a Murderer.

LONGALL, Ont., June 4. [Associated Press.]—Narcisse Lorouque, who on October 7th last brutally murdered two little girls named McGonigle, was hanged