Boy Is Killed While Hunting

Carl Kurtz, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kurtz, residing at 3324 Oakland avenue, accidentally shot himself about 11 o'clock yesterday morning while hunting northwest of the city and died at 1:30 o'clock. One of the boy's arms was torn off and his head was shattered by the charge of shot. He never regained consciousness and died shortly after he was carried into the home of his distracted parents.

Mr. Kurtz and his two boys were together when the accident occurred. Carl crawled through a fence, pulling his gun after him. The weapon was discharged, and the charge took effect in his body.

Mr. Kurtz drove the boy to Pueblo as rapidly as possible but he was too badly hurt to save his life.
