

---

INQUEST TODAY.

---

Coroner Will Investigate the Killing of Jack Leech.

A large number of people visited Olin & Co's undertaking rooms yesterday to see the remains of J. H. Leech who was shot yesterday morning by R. E. Taylor, a deputy marshal. It was found that his face was badly burned by powder after the blood was washed off.

The inquest will be held today, beginning at 9 o'clock, at the undertaking rooms. When the investigation is concluded the remains will be shipped to Stafford, Kas., where they will be interred.

---