

ODAY

Soaked
the

or a snow
e weather
esterday's
now van-
but little y will see
one that night.
y fell, 3.5

one since
e stopped
port, and es.

E

l has es-
service call-em." They re able to e for the
their lines
number of erment of

as to how service. Is n writing.
y morning
forwarded ents, who consider-

Radioline
cleared.

inches were registered at the weather bureau. The snow was extremely wet and covered the ground to the extent of a little more than an inch owing to the fact that it melted almost as fast as it fell.

The snow when melted amounted to .35 inch in water and the ground was well soaked to the extent of several inches. The snow was gone from the ground by 10 o'clock yesterday morning and aside from muddy roads little inconvenience was caused yesterday.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. Alice B. Hall, age 68 years, died at the home of her son, G. B. Hall, 1203 west 17th St., yesterday morning. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Florence D. Lamer of Whitewater, Kas., and Mrs. E. M. Spencer of Spickard, Kas., and a son, G. B. Hall of this city; one sister, Mrs. Ella J. Morrison of Del Norte, Colo., and three brothers, George M. Jerome of Pine, Colo., E. L. Jerome of Pierce City, Mo., and Fred Jerome of Ridgway, Colo., and a host of friends. The body was removed to the United Undertaking company's parlors and the funeral arrangements will be announced later.

The funeral of Mrs. Angeline Lee, wife of William O. Lee, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the McCarthy funeral chapel and from the First Baptist church at 2:30. Rev. L. L. Henson, assisted by Rev. Lewis, officiated. Many friends were present, both at the chapel and church, and the beautiful floral offerings were profuse and were banked upon the casket and chancel rails in the chapel and church. The body was taken from the chapel to the First Baptist church and the services there consisted of the reading of scripture and a beautiful eulogy delivered by Rev. Henson, and his remarks fitted beautifully into the sweet, beautiful life of the venerable and beloved woman, whose friends were legion. Miss Grace Truman and Mrs. L. M. Nelson, assisted by Miss Lotus Champion, sang, "Abide With Me," "I Need Thee Every Hour," and "The Homeland." At the grave they sang: "Asleep in Jesus." The pallbearers were: Dr. J. M. Young, J. E. Creel, Ernest Sheperd, E. L. Stratton, S. S. Packard, and W. Harley Smith. The flower-bearers were: W. R. Johnson, George E. King, Howard Cates and F. M. Sloan. The interment was in the family lot in Roselawn.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Scroggs, beloved wife of W. C. Scroggs, will take place this morning at 9 o'clock in the McCarthy funeral chapel. The services will be conducted by the Rev. John Dick. Interment will be in Brookside cemetery, Rye, Colo. By automobile conveyance. @

Staner Berko, died at the family residence, 1214 Bohemia avenue at 8:30 o'clock last evening. Funeral announcements will be made later by the McCarthy Undertaking company.

The funeral of Earl Lewis, the one-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lewis was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home 1109 Cypress street. Rev. F. Carl Truex conducted the services. The Davis-Vories quartet sang, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Saved by Grace," and Mrs. J. Vinson Adams sang as a solo, "Face to Face." The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Interment was in Mt. View in charge of Davis-Vories.

Francis Puente the 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Puente died at the family home 1028 east Abriendo yesterday morning. Private funeral services was held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, interment was in Mt. View cemetery in charge of Davis-Vories.