swiped Sanderson's car, was arrested at the hospital when he arrived to visit Nyland, who was his passenger in the truck.

George Wolf, deputy sheriff, said Thursday night Syren told him a tire on Sanderson's car blew out, throwing the machine into the path of his truck.

Sanderson was en route home after a business trip in the Arkansas valley. He spent Wednesday night with relatives at Colorado Springs.

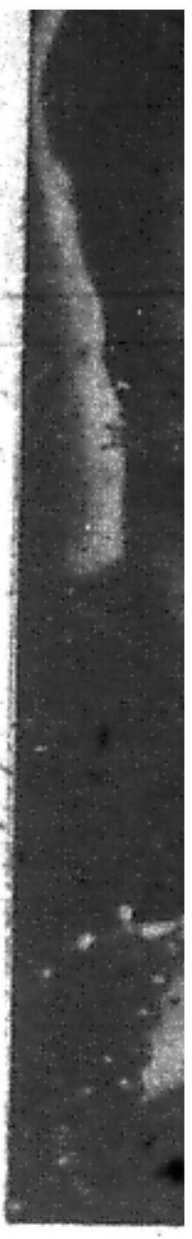

The arrest of Syren was made as a result of the new policy of Clyde L. Starret, Colorado Springs district attorney, who recently announced drivers of vehicles that brought death to another were to face court charges.

PIONEERS' MEETING SLATED FOR OCT. 26

The Southern Colorado Pioneer association will hold its regular monthly meeting Oct. 26, T. G. McCarthy, president, announced Thursday.

The Pioneers are meeting in McCarthy's office for the present, while their rooms at the county courthouse are being occupied by the Southern Colorado Junior college. The museum effects of the association are being held in the basement of the courthouse.

McCarthy said that he anticipates a return to the courthouse, perhaps to occupy other quarters than the college rooms.
