pervade the city, and for seven weeks European capitals noted for their seasons of mystery and regal entertainment will gracefuly bow to the superiority of the city on the banks of the Mississippi.

September 4 will mark the opening of the Twelfth Annual St. Louis exposition. This splendid feature of St. Louis's carnival period will remain open until October 19. In addition to Sousa's world-famed band, many new attractions will be offered. September 4 to 14, the celebrated French equilibrists, the Kins-Ners, will appear. September 15 to 28, Caicedo, "the King of the Wire," and Louis Oloriz, "the Man Monkey," by their unique entertainments will delight the fun-seeking public. September 30 to October 12, Ivan Tscheroff's celebrated educated mutes, the Russian dogs, are carded for a series of wonderful performances. October 13 to 19, Prince Kokin, the greatest Japanese Juggler alive, will fill an engagement, while Buck Taylor and troupe of native Sioux Indians and Miss Cornelia Campbell Bedford, of New York, demonstrator of cooking, will appear every day during the exposition season.

That mysterious personage, King Hotu, and his retinue will give a daylight parade September 28. This is one of the most unique attractioins of the carnival season in St. Louis, and is grotesquely staged. October 7 to 12, the world-beater, the great St. Louis fair, will be the chief attraction. On the evening of October 8th, His majesty the Veiled Prophet and royal court will parade the principal thoroughfares of the city, followed by the famous ball, which is known throughout the land.

All the St. Louis theaters, during the season of high carnival have billed most excellent attractions. Among the number might be mentioned "Trilby," "Lyceum Theater company," "Charles Frohman's Stock company," Hoyt's "A Black Sheep," DeWolf Hopper, etc.

The management of the Missouri Pacific railway and Iron Mountain route constantly having the interests of St. Louis in mind, will sell tickets from all points on the system to the carnival city and return at greatly reduced rates. For copy of the programme giving the features of the carnival season in detail, address company's agents, or H. C. Townsend, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo.
